

NEED MORE BRAIN FOOD? Read our books!

NEED INFORMATION about where you can access funding for your service? Would you like to manage your service more efficiently? ... or even set up your own centre? How about keeping up-to-date with all the developments in early childhood education and children's services?

...then Community Child Care will have a publication that will suit your needs.

Our publications are relevant, informative and make an impact in the early childhood field. We publish a broad range of books, information guides, manuals, magazines and newsletters, all with the purpose of keeping you informed and making your children's service a better place for children, for staff, and for parents!

We cover many issues within our publications, including staffing selection, finances, budgeting, health issues, management, food handling, legal issues ... as well as all the social, economic, educational and political issues that affect the children's services sector.

Community Child Care publications are written and published by experts in the field. From our award winning magazine, Rattler, to our highly successful The Manual: Managing a Children's Service, all of our high quality publications stimulate discussion and promote professional development in the children's services sector.
